Commitments Regarding Appointment of Independent Safety Monitor

Commitments Regarding Appointment of Independent Safety Monitor

Upon the expiration of the term of the federal court monitor,¹ Pacific Gas and Electric Company (the “Utility”) will appoint an Independent Safety Monitor (the “Monitor”). The Monitor will functionally serve in the same capacity as the federal court monitor, will report to the California Public Utilities Commission (the “CPUC”), and will have the authority to retain third-party advisors. The Monitor will work with the Chief Risk Officer and Chief Safety Officer of the Utility and PG&E Corporation (“PG&E Corp.” and collectively with the Utility, “PG&E”), and the management and Board of Directors of PG&E Corp. (the “PG&E Corp. Board”) and of the Utility (the “Utility Board” and together with the PG&E Corp. Board, the “Boards”), including the Boards’ Safety and Nuclear Oversight (SNO) Committees, to develop recommendations to address compliance issues and enhance PG&E’s safety performance. The Monitor will provide recommendations to the SNO Committees, and the SNO Committees will have oversight responsibility for PG&E’s responses to those recommendations. The Utility will submit a Tier 3 Advice Letter to the CPUC no later than one year before the expiration of the term of the federal court monitor, with a proposed scope of work, budget, solicitation process, and a process for selection and approval of the Monitor by the CPUC.

¹ The federal court monitor was appointed pursuant to United States v. Pacific Gas & Electric Co., No. 3:14-CR-0175, Dkt. No. 922 (N.D. Cal. Jan. 31, 2017).
